

I do not believe the proposed rule changes are in the best interest in of the American public. Our democracy is based on free access to a diversity of opinion and thought. In short, this rule change is a dangerous and short-sighted. Why is this necessary?